INTERESTING FROM NEW MEXICO.

ACQUITTAL OF MAJOR WRIGHTMAN.

TRIAL OF THE STATE OFFICERS OF WISCONSIN.

From New Mexico.

THE ELECTION—INDIAN AFFAIRS—JUDICIAL MATTERS—ACQUITTAL OF MAJOR WRIGHTMAN, ETC.

St. Louis, Oct. 24, 1864.

The Santa Fe mail arrived at Independence on the 23d inst.

The election here has been held in New Mexico, and the result is the choice of a democratic majority in the House of Representatives.

The Jacobellis were still at war, and Governor Merritt weather had refused to treat with them.

The Utahs were also in an uneasy state, and the new Indian agent, Mr. Labadie, whose appointment gave great satisfaction, had sent out to bring in the chiefs, in order to have a talk with the Governor.

Judge Benedict was holding courts from Tucson to Pima.

Judge Bacon had arrived at Santa Fe.

The Kansas and Morris and party were met near Cold Spring, and Bishop Lamar and party near Cotton Wood.

The Indians were fallen in with above the crossing of the Arkansas, and a party of Kawas at Big Bend. Both were quite friendly.

A military post on the Arkansas was much needed.

Troops were concentrating in the neighborhood of Albuquerque to resist the Jacobellis, and Capt. Davidson and his command were on route from Santa Fe for that place.

The trial of Major Wrightman for killing Mr. Aubrey resulted in his acquittal.

The indictments against the State Officers of Wisconsin.

ALBANY, Oct. 24, 1864.

The trial of the indictments against the State Officers of Wisconsin, for corrupt conduct as Commissioners of school lands, came up before Judge Hubbell on Tuesday last.

A question was raised by the Attorney General as to the power of the Grand Jury to find a bill, and concluding that the course of proceeding ought to be by impeachment.

The District Attorney declared his intention was to proceed to try the indictment on the day following, when a motion will probably be made to quash the indictments.

Fairs and Exhibitions.

GRAND CATTLE EXHIBITION IN SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Oct. 24, 1864.

The time is fast approaching for the opening to the public of the great cattle exhibition which is to take place in this city, and from present indications, there appears to be no doubt but what the exhibition will be an exceedingly fine one.

Over two hundred entries have been already made, and they are of such fine specimens of cattle as have never before been congregated in one exhibition on this continent.

The city to-night is teeming with hundreds of distinguished guests from all parts of the Union.

The grand agricultural banquet is to be held on Thursday.

THE ALLEGANY AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24, 1864.

The Alleghany Agricultural Fair at present is exciting a great deal of interest. The weather is delightful, and extensive preparations are going forward to make this one of the most interesting exhibitions ever held in this country.

The agricultural, horticultural, and mechanical departments will be unusually well represented.

There is also to be an exhibition of lady equestrians, and it is supposed there will be a most spirited competition, as the prize offered is a splendid horse.

Configurations in the West.

FIRES IN LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 24—Evening.

The large hat store of Ford, Frasier & Smith, the book publisher John Gill, on Main, near Fifth street, in this city, are now in flames. The flames are making great exertions to get the fire under.
